Gail McWilliams is a seasoned motivational speaker, multi-published author, and national radio host. She shares her gripping story of hope in the midst of devastating personal crisis. Gail and her husband, Tony, have five children doctors said they would never have. In the course of having their children, Gail gradually lost her eyesight. But though her physical eyesight is impaired, her vision is keen, and her life message perfect for any life-affirming event. Gail is humorous, intensely challenging, and completely unforgettable. She understands all-too-personally that life is costly.

Gail is an experienced fundraising keynote speaker. Her vivacious personality, effervescent humor, and uncanny capacity to deliver her life message are met with broad and energetic approval. To date she has spoken at seventy life-affirming events in thirty-five states. She believes strongly that efforts for life must succeed. The key is to look beyond the horizon to where the sky's the limit.

SPEAKER

"Gail's presentation was infused with down-to-earth engaging humor that will resonate with parents everywhere. She lifted my spirit and focused my eyes to glimpse a vision of the bigger story of what God can accomplish when we cooperate with His purposes."

- BETSY POWELL, Manager of Sanctity of Human Life, Focus on the Family

RADIO HOST

"We have been holding a major annual fundraising event for many years, and I've been working with various keynote speakers for the seven years I've been serving as Executive Director. Obviously, we've had many powerful and entertaining speakers, but I don't think we've had anyone but Gail McWilliams who generated as much dialogue. Our guests are still talking..." - LISA J. STIEFKIN, Executive Director, San Bernardino Pregnancy Resource Center

AUTHOR

"Guests are still talking about Gail's message, the way she did her homework on our area, the manner in which she tied everything into our theme, how personable she was and how inspired they were by her story. It was a great evening. Giving went over our goal . . . a first for us." - CATHY GRIFFITH, Executive Director, Hillsboro, Ohio

"We trusted our most important part of the evening to Gail - the solicitation of funds. Over half of our gifts that evening came from new donors, proving that Gail helped the audience understand the importance of their participation." - CAROLYN CLINE, Executive Director, Downtown Pregnancy Center, Dallas, Texas

"Gail McWilliams was a joy to work with from start to finish."
- CATHY JO FINCH, Executive Director, Missoula, Montana

"Gail is professional and personable. A winning combination!"
- BARB GOSA, Development Director, Lakeland, Florida

HOPE FOR LIFE

In this presentation, Gail McWilliams will share her life story and her inspiring journey of overcoming challenges and loss. Her joyful spin with her disarming humor will motivate any audience to see that nothing is impossible when you live with purpose. She contends "hope always sees."

Gail's gripping story of how she gradually lost her eyesight while having her children impacts any audience, compelling others to live with vision and not merely by what they see. Gail states, "When you have vision you can see even in the darkest places of life."

In this presentation Gail will cover:

- The Heart of the issue.
- Obstacles and what to do with them.
- Placement and positions are strategic.
- Evidences of your success and legacy will impact generations yet to come.

Gail McWilliams story has been shared around the globe and speaks to all ages and genders that when you choose to see beyond the storms, the possibilities are endless!

JOY IN THE JOURNEY

Gail believes that most people merely exist and survive, but never engage in living. The difference can come when you find joy in the journey. The regrets of yesterday, along with the fear of today, often bring a dread for tomorrow. But what if there's more? Gail will help you to see beyond today's obstacles, barriers, and challenges, knowing that joy will be an undercurrent in the middle of it all. Gail will help you identify:

- What Steals Your Joy and Why
- How to Have Joy With Each New Day
- The Benefits of Contagious Joy

You will marvel when you hear Gail's story, how she gradually lost her eyesight with each of her children, yet has uncommon joy in the middle of her loss. Gail states that others ask her, "How can you have so much joy and you can't see?" She replies with a smile, "How can you see and have no joy?"
